On- Line Resources

The Department of Early Education and Care (www.eec.state.ma.us) licenses all childcare programs in Massachusetts. You can search for licensed childcare programs in our area and find information on licensing standards.

The National Association for the Education of Young Children (www.naeyc.org) administers a national, voluntary accreditation system to help raise the quality of all types of preschools, kindergartens, and child care centers. This site will give you information on early childhood education. Additionally, families can learn about schools and activities they can do with their youngsters that will encourage development.
